THE SECOND EXCITING INVESTIGATION OF THE DETECTIVE TAXI DRIVER

Debora Camilli, alias Siena 23, a taxi driver for necessity and detective by vocation, a cool November evening is in the queue waiting for customers in front of the Termini station when, a few meters from there, in front of the Caritas Hostel, is found the corpse of a stabbed immigrant. Debora cannot withstand the impulse to put her nose, also because the responsible for investigating the Eritrean murdered is the Commissioner Edoardo Raggio of the San Lorenzo Police Department. Although he does everything to keep her out, Debora Camilli begins her parallel investigation, always between her taxi races, delays in her turnations, fanciful lies and consequent scoldings from the radio taxi's employer. She succeeds in intruding herself as a volunteer at the Caritas canteen, to make friends with barbons and immigrants, gather their confidences and penetrate the world of the "invisibles".

Step by step, the missed policeman reconstructs the stages of a difficult reality, finds out many things about the life of the Eritrean: a daughter entrusted to the sisters, a beautiful wife mysteriously disappeared, a life between the illegality and the illusion of reconstructing a new a life in Italy. A young erudit and brilliant dustman, a former Debora's classmate, will help her to solve the case. The commissioner Raggio will have to admit the undeniable talent of Debora and he'll decide to enlist her as a clandestine collaborator. Working togheter, the attraction between the two will become more and more hot, and it will be increasingly difficult for the cop, to withstand the charm of the young taxi driver.
